Centre for Environmental Rights (CER): Internships 2024 Apply here

Description

CER is offering internship opportunities for passionate and motivated individuals who are eager to gain hands-on experience in environmental law, policy advocacy, and research. This internship program provides a unique chance to work alongside experienced professionals and contribute to impactful projects aimed at protecting the environment and communities.

Responsibilities

- Legal Research and Analysis: Conduct legal research on environmental laws, regulations, and precedent cases. Analyze findings to support ongoing litigation and policy advocacy efforts.
- Assistance in Litigation: Provide support to CER attorneys in drafting legal documents, including pleadings, briefs, and motions. Assist in case preparation and strategy development.
- Policy Advocacy Support: Assist in monitoring environmental policies and regulations. Contribute to the development of advocacy materials, policy briefs, and submissions to governmental bodies.
- Community Outreach: Engage with communities affected by environmental issues. Assist in organizing community workshops, events, and educational initiatives.
- Administrative Tasks: Provide general administrative support to the CER team, including data entry, filing, and organizing documents.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in or recent graduate of a law, environmental science, policy, or related program.
- Strong interest in environmental issues and social justice.
- Excellent research and analytical skills.
- Effective written and verbal communication abilities.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office Suite and familiarity with legal research databases is a plus.

Job Benefits

- Hands-on Experience: You will have the opportunity to work on real-world environmental law and advocacy projects, gaining practical skills that will enhance your academic and professional pursuits.
- Mentorship: You will work closely with experienced professionals in the field of environmental law and advocacy who will provide guidance, mentorship, and feedback to help you succeed in your role.
- Networking Opportunities: Through your work at CER, you will have the chance to build relationships with other environmental advocates, legal professionals, and community leaders, expanding your professional
