United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA): Internships 2024 Apply Online

Description

The United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) is the leading UN agency that works to deliver a world where every pregnancy is wanted, every childbirth is safe, and every young person's potential is fulfilled. We are committed to achieving three transformative results: ending preventable maternal deaths, ending unmet need for family planning, and ending gender-based violence and harmful practices.

UNFPA Pretoria offers internship opportunities for highly motivated students with a passion for reproductive health, gender equality, and population issues. The internship provides a unique opportunity for individuals to gain valuable experience working with an international organization while contributing to meaningful projects that make a difference in the lives of people globally.

Responsibilities

- Research and Analysis: Conduct research and analysis on reproductive health, gender equality, and population dynamics to support ongoing projects and initiatives.
- Program Support: Assist in the development, implementation, and monitoring of programs and projects aimed at advancing UNFPA's goals and objectives.
- Documentation and Reporting: Assist in the preparation of reports, briefs, and other documentation related to UNFPA's activities and initiatives.
- Event Coordination: Support the organization and coordination of workshops, conferences, and other events related to reproductive health and gender equality.
- Communication and Outreach: Contribute to the development of communication materials and outreach strategies to raise awareness about UNFPA's work and impact.

Qualifications

- Currently enrolled in a graduate or undergraduate program in a relevant field such as public health, gender studies, international development, or a related discipline.
- Strong academic performance with a demonstrated interest in reproductive health, gender equality, and population issues.
- Excellent research, analytical, and writing skills.
- Proficiency in English (both written and verbal) is required. Knowledge of other UN languages is an asset.
- Ability to work effectively in a multicultural environment and collaborate with colleagues from diverse backgrounds.

Job Benefits

Internships with UNFPA Pretoria typically last for a minimum of three months, with the possibility of extension based on performance and availability. While the internship is unpaid, it offers valuable learning and networking opportunities within
